Federal law requires that Pat Herrity for Congress report the full name, address, occupation, and the name of employer for each individual contributor whose contributions aggregate in excess of $200 in an election. Contributions to Pat Herrity for Congress are not tax deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes. Contributions from corporations, foreign nationals, and federal government contractors are prohibited. It is illegal for any person to reimburse another for making a contribution to a political campaign. Federal law limits contributions to $2,400 per person per election or a total amount of $4,800 per election cycle ($2,400 for primary and $2,400 for the general election) Federal multicandidate PACs may contribute $5,000 per election-which would be $10,000 per election cycle
